

The Friends of the Willis Museum

Arson in His Majesty's Dockyards The Story of 'John the Painter'

A talk by Alan Turton at the Willis Museum
16th April 2020 at 7.30pm sharp

Alan will tell the story of 'John the Painter'. This man went under many aliases and was a renowned criminal with personal grudges, specialising in setting fire to docklands, including Portsmouth. One of the first home-grown terrorists, he ended up apprehended by the Bow Street Runners in Odiham

Doors open 7.10pm Free to members, visitors £3 at the door. Some "first come, first served" seats have been reserved for non-members. Booking is essential. Call in or phone 01256 465902.