

The Friends of the Willis Museum

Spitfire Production in Tadley

A talk by Richard Brown at the Willis Museum
16th April 2026 at 7.30pm sharp

Did they really make Spitfires in Tadley? Why was the Spitfire aeroplane so important to Britain? Why was it produced in sheds and garages spread around central Southern England? Richard will tell us the intriguing tale that answers these questions.

Doors open 7.10pm Free to members, visitors £5 at the door. Some "first come, first served" seats have been reserved for non-members. Booking is essential. Call in or phone 01256 465902.